

FAITH CONFESSIONS

1. Have you ever encountered the practice of speaking the Word over your life? What has been your response to it up to this point?
2. Do you have any hesitations to speaking the Word over your life and preaching to yourself? What is at the root of these hesitations?
3. Why is it important to speak the Word over your life when your life is not lining up to the word you are speaking?
4. Which of the faith confessions do you most need to speak over your life right now?
5. Which of the faith confessions do you most need to begin putting into practice right now?